

The Capitol Letter

 News and events inside Capitol Broadcasting Co. from Jim Goodman, President

I hope all of you had and will continue to have a Happy Holiday!

We are planning to distribute the newsletter on a bi-weekly basis in your pay envelopes so each of you will be assured of receiving an individual newsletter.

The Children's Christmas Party was aired December 24th and the kids and the parents looked great. If the empty plates and opened presents were any indication, the party was a big success!

Congratulations to Jack Edwards, his wife Ruth, Richard Raynor, and Joel's wife, Frances Lawhon, who walked off with a large share of the turkeys and trophies in the North Carolina Agriculture Department's annual TURKEY SHOOT for the media.

Rick Ray has announced that Tony Ramos, from NBC in Washington, will join our staff as a director on January 7, 1977.

I would like to join Dan Hart of the Woody Hayes Division in announcing that effective January 3, 1977, Pat Smith will be the new Office Manager of the Woody Hayes Music Division. Congratulations Pat and also to Bucky Strickland of Woody Hayes for the great sale to the A & P Stores.

From FM.....CHRISTMAS WISH ('76) turned out to be quite successful --- Capital City Jaycees were glad to get the project and publicity -- FM was grateful for the manpower -- and about 100 recipients were no doubt pleased to have their wishes granted.

Congratulations to Peter Deane's wife, Stephanie Bass, who has been named Jim Hunt's Deputy Press Secretary.

The North Carolina Arthritis Foundation has nominated Verne Strickland's Mini-Doc on Arthritis this year for the National Russell Cecil Award. Verne has been named statewide Publicity Chairman for the 1977 Activities of Rural Safety Council. Sylvia Sutter is a member of the planning board for the North Carolina State University Farm, Press, Radio, TV tobacco production, sponsored by Ciba-Geigy Corporation, which will be aired January 15th from 7:00 - 9:00 a.m. Ray Wilkinson has been named to the Statewide Advisory Board for Agricultural Education through the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction.

The following morning program schedule changes will go in effect January 3, 1977:

6:30 - 7:00	Uncle Paul
7:00 - 8:00	Good Morning Five Country
8:00 - 9:00	Good Morning America
9:00 - 10:30	Mike Douglas

Personnel is recruiting for the following positions: Accounting Clerk, Creative Services Director, General Services Manager, Billing Clerk/WHMD, Traffic Director/FM.

Drive Safely and have a very Happy 1977!
