

tele.news

Letter

WRAL - TV

ABC
REPRESENTED BY KATZ

RALEIGH, N.C.

VOLUME 17, NUMBER 4

APRIL, 1974

VISIT OUR GARDENS

You are cordially invited to visit the colorful display of azaleas, dogwood and other flowering trees and shrubs in our WRAL-TV Gardens in April. Our studios and gardens are located on Western Boulevard in Raleigh. Guided tours of the studio are available on Sundays 1:00 - 5:00 PM.

SEWING CONTEST A SUCCESS

Bette Elliott, on her week-day FEMME FARE program, had a large number of contestants in her recent sewing contest. The winners were, from left: Miss Bobbie Andrews, Chapel Hill, high school division; Mrs. Alice Marie Darnell, Raleigh, evening wear division; Mr. Paul Synowiez, of Alexander's Sewing Center; Mrs. Marge Causey, Cary, men's division, whose husband, Glenn, modeled her handiwork;

Mrs. Anne Williams, Kenly, children's division, who used as a model her daughter, Crecia, Mrs. Clinton E. Abbott, Henderson, was the Best In Show winner. The winners appeared on FEMME FARE to exhibit their creations.

LATE PROGRAM ADDITIONS

AN "I" ON FASHION, filmed in New York City and narrated by BETTE ELLIOTT, will display the Spring '74 styles on April 4, 7:00 - 7:30 PM.

THE MORMAN WORLD CONFERENCE will be telecast on April 7, 10:00 AM - 12:00 Noon, from Salt Lake City, Utah.

THEY'RE OFF!

FUN AT THE RACES has returned to TV FIVE. It is seen Saturdays at 12:00 Noon. Sport fans, take note.