CITIZENSHIP AWARDS

Shown here are four more of ten outstanding 1971 graduating seniors who received Citizenship Awards presented by the A. J. Fletcher Educational & Opera Foundation, Inc., in cooperation with WRAL-Television. The winners are: (top left) Marilyn Elaine Boggs from Broadway High School; (top right) Linda Martin of Chatham Central High School in Bear Creek; (lower left) Harry W. Cocowitch, Jr., from Northern High School in Durham and (lower right) Roger Lynn McKoy of Lillington High School.

The recipients were selected by committees, appointed by principals in the schools, and were judged on the basis of character, citizenship, community involvement, church activities and for appreciation of the free enterprise system.

All of the recipients were presented an engraved plaque and a cash award.

This is the third year for the Citizenship program in selected schools in the WRAL-TV area.
