CHANNEL 5 COVERS THE LEGISLATURE

Carl Goerch, a household word in thousands of North Carolina homes, will bring his reputable brand of reporting to television in a new program to begin on February 4, DOINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE. Mr. Goerch, former editor of "State" magazine, was for years an outstanding political commentator on WPTF-Radio, where he also conducted "Carolina Chats", a folksy report on the activities of North Carolinians. DOINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE will be seen twice daily, Monday through Friday, a five-minute program at 6:10 PM, and a fifteen-minute wrap up at 11:20 PM.

WRAL-TV RECEIVES PLAQUE

The North Carolina Association For Mentally Retarded Children presented to WRAL-TV a plaque in appreciation of work done in informing the public about the problems of mental retardation. The presentation was made at a recent meeting at the studios. Particular mention was made of the program, "The Little People", which was produced by Sam Beard, Director of Public Affairs.

BOZO PARTY

Several hundred children and mothers attended BOZO THE CLOWN'S party for Popeye. They enjoyed cartoons, Major the Mynah Bird, some very sticky cake and the antics of BOZO. The photographer caught a photogenic Miss with her favorite television star in a quite appealing pose.

DRAGNET RETURNS

The pace setter for television police shows of its day, DRAGNET, returns to Channel 5 - seen each Monday night at 7:00 PM. Jack Webb, leading actor and producer, is featured in each episode.
