A. J. FLETCHER EDUCATIONAL & OPERA FOUNDATION CITIZENSHIP AWARDS

Each year the A. J. Fletcher Educational and Opera Foundation presents a Citizenship award to a senior in selected schools in the WRAL-TV service area. The recipients, chosen by their respective faculty members, are judged on character, scholarship, participation in church, school and community activities, and appreciation of the free enterprise system and what it means to the youth of today. The award consisted of an engraved plaque and a check in the amount of $100.

Three of the thirteen recipients were as follows: (upper left) Kathy Dianne Johnson of Goldsboro Christian Schools, accepting from Wally Voigt, Vice President of Capitol Broadcasting Company; (upper middle) Kenji Ray Taylor of Zebulon High school, accepting from Aubrey H. Moore, Vice President of WRAL-TV; and (upper right) Bill Roberts from Vance Senior High School in Henderson, accepting from David Witherspoon, Vice President of WRAL-TV.

ONE-MAN ART SHOW

Paul Pope, a video tape operator, recently staged a one-man art show at the WRAL-TV studios, displaying his artistry in sculpture, oils, ceramics and crafts. A native of Raleigh, Pope finished West Cary High School, and recently was graduated from North Carolina Central University in Durham with a degree in Fine Arts. Pope is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pope, Sr., who now live in Washington, D. C. He has been employed at WRAL-TV since 1967.
