REPRESENTED BY H-R

RALEIGH, N.C.

VOLUME 5 - NUMBER 6

JUNE 1962

CARY JAYCEE AWARD

WRAL-Television's Executive Vice President, Fred Fletcher, left, accepted, for himself and the station, a certificate of appreciation from the Cary, North Carolina Jaycees at a meeting of the organization on May 22. Ray Sparrow, President of the Club presented the award.

Cary's Mayor Hogarth, in commenting on the WRAL-TV telethon that raised money to send the Cary high school band to a national competition, stated, "This generous act was an example of corporate citizenship at its best."★

LEADING KEGLERS

The Channel 5 Bowling Team furnished the doubles champions in the City Tournament with Lee Poole and Ross Shaheen walking off with the honors. Bernie Whitaker placed fifth in the singles championship. Shown kneeling is Lee Poole, and left, Frank Peterson, Bernie Whitaker, Nat Hale and Ross Shaheen. ★

SCHOOL GROUPS VISIT BOZO

Each spring, Raleigh is inundated by thousands of school children on their annual trip to the Capitol City. WRAL-Television plays host to many of these groups, giving guided tours of the studios and facilities, where many of the youngsters have an opportunity to see a "live" television production. Shown here is a group from the Wake Elementary School enjoying the BOZO THE CLOWN show.★
