

MINI-DOC 5 CREATES COMMENT

The in depth reporting on the MINI-DOC 5 series has created much favorable comment. Some of the subjects covered on the five-per-week segments on ACTION NEWS have included reports on home fires, teen age problems, day care centers. On March 1, Fred Taylor will begin a series on THE NORTH CAROLINA PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCE PRIMARY.

CIRCUS ELEPHANT RIDERS

Those in attendance at the Ringling Brothers-Barnum & Bailey Circus performances in Raleigh and Fayetteville, saw several apprehensive newsmen from TV 5 perched precariously atop the ponderous pachyderms in a parade around the rings. The spectacle was enjoyed by all.

FARM DEPARTMENT ACTIVE

Our busy Farm Department Personnel have had additional honors, and duties, heaped upon them. Farm Director Ray Wilkinson has been elected Vice President for the Southeast Region for the National Association of Farm Broadcasters. Farm Editor Verne Strickland accepted an appointment to the Southeastern Livestock and Dairy Advisory Council. Verne was the only news representative to be so honored. Farm Reporter Sylvia Sutter was elected Vice President of the North Carolina Farm Writers and Broadcasters Association at a recent meeting of the Farm Press Institute.
