Channel 5's Television Clinic visited the Rocky Mount City Schools recently for a demonstration of certain items of television equipment. An estimated 1200 students, from Senior and Junior High, heard discussions on various phases of television, and watched a demonstration of the videotape recorder. Following the Clinic a Cap'n Five Show was video-taped with Rocky Mount youngsters as

OPEN HOUSE FOR CHEMSTRAND

Employees of the new Chemstrand Research Center in the Research Triangle Park visited the Channel Five facilities on a recent sunny Saturday for a tour of the studios and azalea gardens.

The group above watches an outdoor demonstration of the mobile video-tape recorder, while the youngsters with parents, get set for a Cap'n Five cartoon party.
