

WRAL - TV

ABC
REPRESENTED BY KATZ

RALEIGH, N.C.

VOLUME 18, NUMBER 5

MAY, 1975

ATLANTA BRAVES BASEBALL

Sunday, May 4, 2:00 PM the Atlanta Braves will meet the Cincinnati Reds in the first game of the season's schedule to be telecast on TV 5. Additional games in May will be seen:

May 18 - Philadelphia	1:30 PM
May 26 - Chicago	2:30 PM

For a complete schedule, write BASEBALL, c/o WRAL-TV, Raleigh, N. C. 27605.

MUSICAL COMEDY

The comedy, THE ELIXIR OF LOVE will be performed by The National Opera Company on May 11, 2:30 - 4:00 PM on TV 5. The story tells of a shy young farmer who tries to find the Tristan and Isolde love potion to insure the girl of his dreams will fall for him. A travelling medicine salesman supplies the supposed "elixir", and when the farmer's uncle leaves him a large fortune, the village girls suddenly take interest. He thinks the potion is working to perfection. Leading roles are sung by Patricia Wright, Tallahassee; Durwood McDonnel, Austin, Texas; Houston Hill, Freer, Texas; and Robert Stevens, New York City. Don Wilder is the Music Director.

FREEDOMS FOUNDATION AWARD

William P. Cheshire, right, formerly Editorial Director for WRAL-TV, and now with the Greensboro Record received a Freedoms Foundation Award at recent ceremonies in the WRAL-TV Gardens for an editorial aired while at the station. The Award was presented by Mr. A. J. Fletcher, Chief Executive Officer, Capitol Broadcasting Company, Inc.