VOLUME 4 - NUMBER 11

NOVEMBER, 1961

CHANNEL 5 PICK THE WINNERS CONTEST

There're prizes galore in the big contest coming up for viewers on Channel 5 - the first prize is an RCA Color TV set, then there's a stereo set, portable TV's, a washer, a dryer, and many others - 25 big prizes in all, worth thousands of dollars. How to win? Just list what you think will be the ten most popular regularly scheduled shows on Channel 5 in November during the evening hours, 7:00-11:00 PM. The contest will run from November 13 to November 26. Your estimate of the ten most popular shows will be compared with the results of an audience survey during November by the American Research Bureau, Inc. The results will be announced around January 1, 1962. Get complete details and an entry blank from your favorite A & P or Colonial supermarket, or write PICK THE WINNERS, WRAL-TV, Raleigh, N. C. ♦

MACBETH PLEASES CROWD

WRAL-TV Television played host to over 300 students of local high schools and colleges for the Hallmark MACBETH telecast. The crowd was impressed, not only with the action of the drama, but the superb color. ♦

PERSONAL APPEARANCES

Cap'n Five and Bozo The Clown will appear in the Yule Parade at Wallace on November 30. ♦

GOLDEN GIRL - NOVEMBER 29

Producers of "Hollywood: The Golden Years" have selected Joanne Quackenbush (right) as a starlet most representative of the film beauties of the silent films era. The full hour documentary story of the silent movie days will be telecast on NBC and Channel 5 on November 29, 7:30-8:30 PM. ♦
