CHANNEL 5 GOES TO THE FAIR

Perhaps everyone who visited the Biggest and Best N.C. State Fair in years didn't call by the Channel 5 booth—but thousands of them did. Many more viewed the variety of live programming from the outdoor exhibit on the north side of the Dorton arena. The BOZO THE CLOWN and CAP'N 5—SPACE HARBOR shows were telecast daily from the Fair, as was TEEN AGE FROLICS on Saturday. THE HARVESTERS QUARTET and the PROFESSIONAL WRESTLING programs were videotaped for airing at the regular times. Some 5,000 fair visitors viewed the grunt-and-groan program. CAP'N 5 and SPACE ACE are shown here preparing for the afternoon. Cap'n 5's X-5 "Space Craft", on display at the Fair, created considerable comment. Mrs. Banks Scudder, of Raleigh, was the winner of the portable TV set for which thousands registered.

MORE SHOWS IN COLOR

DEATH VALLEY DAYS, the top rated, long running Western show, has announced two episodes in color — on November 14 and November 21. This program is seen Wednesday nights at 7:00 PM.

ABC-TV V. P. VISITS CH. 5

James C. Hagerty, ABC Vice President in charge of news and public affairs, paid a visit to the Raleigh outlet on October 22. He is shown here with WRAL-TV Director of News, Bill Armstrong, discussing the fast breaking Cuban situation. While in North Carolina, Hagerty addressed the Convention of the North Carolina Association of Broadcasters, and addressed a large group of civic leaders in Wilson.
