DR. KILDARE ON TV

SAM BEARD'S "TIME OUT"

One of radio's most popular regional shows, TIME OUT, is now seen on Channel Five each Monday, Wednesday and Friday at one o'clock. Emcee Sam Beard, who enjoyed wide popularity with the show on radio, will be on hand to try and stump a panel of "experts" with questions on current events and general information.
