PROGRAM SCHEDULE INSIDE

SALUTE TO A CHAMPION

Bob Knapp, veteran Channel Five announcer whom you see frequently on REEVE WITH SPORTS, attended the Tee-Off For The Kick-Off party, sponsored by the Atlantic Coast Conference and the University of North Carolina, held recently at Chapel Hill. He is shown here, left, being presented a trophy by William Godfrey of the University for winning the golf championship in the Press, Radio - Television tournament. Knapp came in with a sizzling 72, par for the A. E. Finley course. This is the second straight win for affable Bob, who won the same tournament last year with a 77.

IT'S FOOTBALL TIME

The crispness of the air, the coloring trees and the blaring bands mean but one thing — King Football begins his annual reign. WRAL—Television's season debuts on September 14 with NBC's telecast of the professional New York Giants vs. the Baltimore Colts at 1 PM. The college season starts September 20 with outstanding games from all over the nation that will continue each Saturday afternoon throughout the season. On September 21, the Chicago Bears meet the Washington Redskins at 1 PM in a professional contest.

WATCH FOR THE NEW ONES

ED WYNN, Sept. 25 at 8 PM; CIMARRON CITY, Sept. 27 at 9:30 PM; BRAINS AND BRAWN, Sept. 13 at 10:30 PM; STEVE CANYON, Sept. 13 at 9:00 PM; ELLERY QUEEN, Sept. 26 at 8:00 PM. There'll be others, so keep your dial on Channel Five.

CHANNEL FIVE BEAUTY

Miss Leona Weston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Weston of Garner, represented WRAL-Television at the Carolina's Press Photographers Beauty Contest held in August at Myrtle Beach, S. C. The 18-year old beauty will enter Duke University this month where she plans to eventually enter pre-medical school.
